SUFFRAGISTS MARCH Features of To-day's Big Suffrage Parade UP 5TH AVE. TO-DAY

20,000 Will Parade, Rain or Shine, to Demonstrate Right to Vote.

NATIONAL HEADS IN LINE

Thousands Will Carry Banners Bearing Arguments for Equal Rights.

"Rain for Saturday," says Old Probabilities, and as he is right forty-nine times out of a hundred the suffrage parade may march in the wet to-day. But rain or shine 20,000 women who want the vote will mobilize in Washington Square between noon and 2 o'clock, and rain or shine they will start at 2 sharp on their tramp up Fifth avenue to Fifty-ninth street. Every union band in New York has been engaged to play for them and will play, rain or shine. Thousands of banners bearing President Wilson's appeals to New York men to vote for women suffrage, Gen. Pershing's praise of woman's war service, statistics of woman's war work and of the number of women who demand the ballot will mix the blue, white and yellow of the New York State Woman Suffrage party with Uncle Sam's red, white and -rain or shine blue—rain or shine.

It would be a sad loss to have a flood from the skies wash out the signatures of the 1.014.000 New York women, who have registered their desire to vote, nevertheless these signatures, pasted on huge beaverboards, will be carried by 2.500 suffs—rain or shine.

A Businesslike Parade.

A straight from the shoulder, business. The flags will lend it the beauty of color, and there will be artistic formations in the different divisions, and so on, but the feature is to be the long, long lines of plainly dressed women in their little black hats, eyes ahead, shoulders erect, asking as taxpaying women, as wage earning women, as women who are doing patriotic service, or just as mothers, for the right of a voice in the Government under which they live.

Was granted. One of the heroes susmonths in jall for picketing the White months in jall for picketing the was granted disablement benefits in the was granted d right of a voice in the Government under which they live.

Our W. K. friends the mounted police will as usual head the parade, swinging out from under Washington Arch as the clock in the Me.opolitan Life tower strikes 2. Then will come the grand marshal, Miss Josephine Belderhase, with her staff, then a band and then Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany carrying the American flag. More flags, orifammes and bands and banners and then those two war horses of the suffrage movement, Dr. Anna Howard frage movement, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, walking abreast. They head the Na-tional Woman Suffrage Association diwision.

Mrs. Herbert Carpenter, who has carried banners in more suffrage parades than any other living woman and looks like a girl though she is a grandmother, will head the New York State diwision carrying Okl Glory. Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, Miss May Ladenburg and a lot of other women whose names are frequently seen in society columns will be banner bearers. Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse and the rest of the officers and hundreds of members will march.

Women in industry will form the next section, divided into many trades and carrying scores of slogans, which Mrs. Philip Lydig will shelter in her house on Washington Square till the time comes to start. Mrs. Edgerton Parsons will head a large division of business and professional women, Miss Katherine D. Blake leads the teachers, and the tax paying women will walk behind Mrs. Arthur Scribner.
